Two Levels of Public Participation

Informal Participation

Making your voice heard

- > Blue Cards: Verbal Comments at Public Meetings
- > Written Comments or Statements to the Commission Dockets Unit (Docket No. 08-AFC-12)

Comments

- > Considered by the Commissioners
- > Part of the record
- > Not evidence

Two Levels of Public Participation

The Public Adviser's Office

Formal Participation (Intervenor)

How to Formally Participate

- > Contact the Public Adviser's Office
- > File Petition to Intervene. It is important to intervene early in a case, otherwise there is the possibility of missing the time frame in which to request information from staff, the applicant and other parties.

Who can Become an Intervenor

- > Anyone may file a Petition to Intervene in a proceeding
- > You do not have to be or have an attorney to intervene
- > The petition is considered by the assigned committee
- > If approved, you become a party to this proceeding

Two Levels of Public Participation

Benefits & Responsibilities to Intervening

Intervenors have the same rights and responsibilities as other parties

Receive

- All filings in a case, including AFC

- Notices of hearings and workshops through Proof of Service

Fully participate in the process of obtaining information

File documents and serve them on all parties

- Motions

- Petitions

- Objections

- Briefs

Present evidence and witnesses

Cross-examine witnesses provided by other parties
